MILSpouse.org

The Military Spouse Resource Center, popularly known as MilSpouse.org, is the most comprehensive Web portal site for military spouse employment resources and information. This portal is jointly sponsored by the Department of Defense and the Department of Labor.

The Coach

MilSpouse.org provides easy access to information, resources, and opportunities related to education, training, and employment.

Find information organized into areas of greatest interest to military spouses, such as:

- Your military installation
- Career Opportunities
- Adult education and training
- Talent development
- Benefits and support services
- Relocation resources
- Regional workforce & economic information
- One-Stop Career Centers and base Family Centers

The MilSpouse.org Web site contains a Career Coach that guides users to information based on situations spouses frequently encounter. Users select a situation and are guided to specific resources.

Give the Career Coach a try. Just click on the "Need Help?" button on www.MilSpouse.org.

The screenshot displays the MilSpouse.org homepage with a navigation bar and a sidebar. The main content area features a "Welcome to MilSpouse.org" message and a "Need Help?" section. The "Need Help?" section lists various topics such as "I'm coming from overseas to the states" and "I currently have a Federal job". Below the list is a "Do It" section with a "Support @ MIL" button. The sidebar on the right contains a "Close this Coach" button.
